Theological Insights

1. God cares about truth and wants his people to know what really happened. Luke wrote this book to help people be sure about what they believe.
2. The story of Jesus is not a made-up story. It was told by people who saw it with their own eyes. Christians believe this makes the message trustworthy.
3. God works through people like Luke to share his good news. Christians believe that the Bible is written by people, but it is also God's word to us.
